Etienne Jaumet & Fabrizio Rat

CD / LP / Digital / 18. März 2022

Auf ihrem selbstbetitelten Debütalbum erfinden die beiden ausgebildeten Pianisten Etienne Jaumet und Fabrizio Rat ihr Lieblingsinstrument neu. Während ersterer dank der Rhythmusmaschinen, die sein Klavier begleiten, ungewöhnliche Klänge erzeugt, nutzt letzterer dieses klassische wie romantische Instrument par excellence für eine Erkundung der Sphären des Techno.

"Die Idee unseres Duos ist es, den harmonischen Reichtum von Klavier und Synthesizer mit dem Rhythmus zu konfrontieren. Unsere Interaktionen durch Live-Musik zu erforschen. Neue Atmosphären zu schaffen, dank der suggestiven Kraft ungewöhnlicher Sounds. Irgendwo zwischen Ambient und Klangexperiment..."

Etienne Jaumet and Fabrizio Rat announce their debut full-length collaboration, to be released on March 18th 2022 by Bureau B.

On this album they explore the encounter between Fabrizio's favourite instrument, the acoustic piano, and Etienne's modular synthesizer. Simple musical ideas are repeated and transformed in an extremely gradual process, investigating the possibilities of these two very different sound sources.

Fabrizio's playing technique on the piano is anything but conventional. He chooses to employ only a few notes from the 88 keys available, and uses his left hand to transform the piano sound by manipulating the strings on different points with his fingers. His goal is to produce acoustic filtering and harmonic effects normally associated with electronic music.

Etienne is a sonic sculptor who uses his modular synthesizer to create modulations and sonic mantras that evolve over time. His sounds are warm and alive. They hypnotize the listener in a mental vortex.

The real focus of the duo is sonic transformation, departing from basic melodic and rhythmical elements. The harmonic richness of the acoustic piano mixes with the modulating lines of the modular filters creating unheard textures. The listeners are captured in a trip between trance and hypnosis, punctuated by the sparse hits of a drum machine.

Rive Opposte opens with a repeated note modulated throughout the track in ever different ways while the piano unfolds a pattern played in harmonics, on the lower piano strings.

In Sentiero the same melodic idea is played by both instruments in unison, repeated over and over while the modular timbre evolves very gradually - the piano displaces the melody through the octaves and harmonizes it in ever changing ways.

Visione Pop has a playful character. Permutations of a three note pattern at the piano respond to a captivating melody on the modular. The two elements evolve independently, exploring various sonic possibilities and playing techniques.

The resulting album from this collaboration is a deeply hypnotic trip, exploring novel sonic mixtures between the acoustic and electronic world.

About the artists:

Fabrizio Rat has produced 4 solo albums and 8 EPs on labels such as Blackstrobe Records, Involve Records, Odd Even and Optimo Trax. He is acknowledged for his intense performances in clubs and festivals, mixing acoustic piano, drum machines and synthesizers. His music travels through techno, electronic and experimental music.

Etienne Jaumet has released 3 solo albums on Versatile Records, and a half dozen records with his group Zombie Zombie. He collaborated with artists such as James Holden, Sonic Boom, Emmanuelle Parrenin, Richard Pinhas, Gilbert Artman, The Married Monk, and Flop. His music is very cinematic and evolves between jazz, ambient and electro.
