BUREAU B celebrates 2012's Record Store Day with a series of exclusive 12" vinyl releases.

The first collaboration between Ulrich Schnauss & Mark Peters, "Underrated Silence" has been one of Bureau B's most successful releases so far. Ulrich Schnauss (famous for his three solo albums as well as for his remix work) teamed up with Mark Peters (bass player, guitarist and singer of the British band Engineers) to create a bacchanalian instrumental combination of ambient, electronica and shoegaze sounds. "Balcony Sunset" is a track from this session that was not released on the album.

Kurt "Pyrolator" Dahlke is one of the key figures in the late 70's to late 80's German music scene. He is the co-founder of the influential Ata Tak record label and has been a member of legendary bands such as D.A.F. and Fehlfarben. "Neuland" was his first solo album release in 24 years! The track "Sonnenaufgang 4:46 Uhr" is an outtake from sessions for that album.
